Fort, Bombay. 18th Dec., 1950.

My dear brother General Caridppa,

I hope by the grace of God you are in the best of health and spirits. I am indeed grateful to you, sweet brother, for having accepted the invitation to address the commerce graduates. You spoke beautifully, and impressed the audience very well. I could not find words enough to thank you. I never knew you were an orator also.

Yesterday I sang up at the Army H.Q. to find out if you were in the City, but to my great disappointment you had already left. I thought I might get a glimpse of my brother "the country's Pride". In the name of God and Lord Zarathustra I take you as my own brother, and shall feel very happy if I can be of any help to you in any way.

Dear brother, I will be expecting a reply, and I am sure though I will be putting you to so much inconvenience
I am sure you will not disappoint me.
May God keep you safe and help you to guide the destiny of this great nation. Young India needs you and welcomes you, and will ever be ready to follow you. Trust in God and carry on, victory is yours.

My husband Noshirwan and my mother send you their kindest regards and pray for your health and happiness in abundance always.

Wishing you God's Blessings

I remain,

Most sincerely yours

(Mrs.) Shera Noshir Vajifdar
